Oral Poetry and Narratives from Central Arabia II: The Story of a Desert Knight P. Marcel Kurpershoek

The Story of a Desert Knight is the second volume of a trilogy entitled Oral Poetry and Narratives from Central Arabia. It is devoted to the narratives told about and the poems composed by Iw h al- At wi and his brother Bx t, both famous desert knights in the middle and second half of the nineteenth century. The principal source of this book is Iw h 's great-grandson X lid, a sheikh of the Utaybah tribe. The introduction discusses inter alia the general characteristics of Bedouin oral culture, the linguistic, prosodic and stylistic features of the text, and X lid's use of his ancestors' oral legacy in order to enhance his position in the tribal hierarchy of prestige. In addition to the translation of the oral text this volume offers a complete transcription, based on taped records and including variants found in published Saudi sources, and a substantial glossary."
