Paper cutting is an art that dates back at least to the Song and Tang dynasties. In these modern times, the dainty and exacting cuts that characterized earlier ages require more time than most of us have on hand. This is where Cricut (pronounced “cricket” – like the insect) comes in. It is more advanced than an old-fashioned di-cut machine; in fact, it is a modern, computerized cutting machine that you can program to create beautiful designs. This book will share with you inspiring ideas for using your Cricut to make beautiful things for your home, for gifts, and just for fun. Cricut will also cut specialty materials such as leather or art papers – materials that would be a real challenge to cut by hand. So open up your copy of Cricut: the complete user guide for Cricut Explore – Discover amazing Cricut Explore design hacks and get started creating beautiful stuff today.
