Knock at the Door and Other Baby Action Rhymes Kay Chorao

Kay Chorao, known for her sweet and luscious books for babies, adds this lively, lovely treasury of action rhymes to her collections. And it promises lots of hand-clapping, toe-tapping, finger-wiggling fun for baby... and parent! Old favorites, such as "Pat-a-Cake," are included, as well as lesser-known ones that are just as delightful.

Rosy as a baby's cheek and bursting with rainbow colors, the cheery illustrations depict a child's imaginary world full of friendly animals, adorable tots, and toys galore. More fun and precious details-such as tiny dollhouse furniture, numerous playful mice, and a choo-choo train packed with cuddly creatures-are revealed with each repeated reading. Easy-to-follow diagrams depict hand and body movements that toddlers can easily perform while the rhymes are read aloud. These rhymes were specially selected for their simple actions and basic concepts. This enjoyable picture book is sure to provide lots of warm, happy moments between parents and their little ones.
