California's Native American Tribes: Cahuilla Tribe : Book Three Mary Null Boule

Mary Null taught in the California public school system for twenty-five years. Her teaching years made her well aware of the acute need for well researched regional social studies books for elementary school students. This series on the California Native American tribes fills the long-standing need in California education. Ms. Null is the author and publisher of The Missions: She is married and the mother of five grown children. Illustrator Daniel Liddell has been creating artistic replicas of Native American artifacts for several years, and his paintings reflect his own Native American heritage. His paternal grandmother was full-blooded Chickasaw.
