Love To Love You (Love/Hate) (Volume 3) Isabelle Richards

After a long year of heartache and loss, Chase and Arianna pulled together the shattered pieces of their hearts and rebuilt a relationship that is stronger and more secure than ever before. Letting go of the mistakes of their past, their focus is on the future—their happily ever after. Happily ever after... Those three simple words are filled with so much promise, as though a wedding is the gateway to a lifetime of bliss. It sounds so easy. When it comes to Chase and Arianna, nothing ever comes easy. Now that Arianna is rebuilding her career and the start of the football season approaches, she and Chase are pulled in opposite directions. Hectic travel schedules, never ending work demands, and intense media scrutiny have the power shatter even in the most secure relationships. Their relationship cracked under the pressure of their celebrity lifestyle in the past, for them to avoid repeating mistakes from the past, compromises will have to be made. Begging the question—how much are they willing to sacrifice? How far are they willing to go to save their relationship? It's one thing to say love can endure through "good times and in bad," it's quite another to mean it.
