The New Terrorism: How to Fight It and Defeat It Van Hipp

We are living in an era in which terrorism demands our constant attention. Few people in North America or Western Europe have the capacity to study and analyze the wide scale number and kinds of threats facing us as a civilization. Even fewer can make constructive suggestions on how to meet and eliminate these threats in an effective way. Van Hipp discusses the full range of threats. Not just the constant threats of suicide bombers, airplane hijacking and odious beheadings, but the threats from military and cyber sources. He stresses the need to upgrade our missile defenses, protect ourselves from cyber attacks, and eliminate the dangers posed by our porous borders. He calls upon our national leadership to undertake the steps that will protect us all from these threats.
