Learn why you should adapt to your environment! Fully illustrated Book, for ages 3-8 " The Adaptive Chameleon " tells the story of Rainbow, a young chameleon who lived in a forest in India. His best chameleon friends were Lizzie and Dexter. Lizzie and Dexter used to change their colors to match the environment but Rainbow didn't want to. The only problem was that Rainbow didn't want to match his colors. "I like my green color best," said Rainbow. "And I would never change it no matter what. After a few adventures, Rainbow understands why he must learn to adapt to the environment. Author Efrat Haddi is taking young children on a journey with Rainbow while she learns a very important lesson. " The Adaptive Chameleon " helps to teach children an important social skill that can make home life happier and school more successful. It also provides parents, teachers, and counselors with an entertaining way to teach children why they should adapt to their environment. This well-written and inspiring story, delivers easy-to-digest education complemented by vibrant, delightful illustrations This story may be ideal for reading to your kids at bedtime and enjoyable for the whole family as well! It is suitable as a read aloud book for preschoolers or a self-read book for older children.
