Greenford the Frog and the Statue Bird Allyson B. Folmar

What will happen when Greenford finds the frog king to make the statue bird real? This friendship is like no other in this story about how a little frog finds happiness from a bird made of cement that sits on a birdbath, where he washes every morning. It takes believing in something to make this little frog go to the lengths he goes to find happiness. So let your imagination follow them on a journey of true friendship.

Greenford the Frog and the Statue Bird is a picture book that explores the magic of a friendship and the lengths we may go to find happiness.
