Not illustrated. 1822 Excerpt: ...satisfactory evidence of a sincere and consistent attachment to the great truths of Christianity. Among his early associates was Mr. Henry Jowett, the father of Dr. Jowett, late Regius Professor of Civil Law, in the University of Cambridge, and of Mr. John Jowett, who, on leaving Leeds, resided at Newington Butts, near London, to his death. "Mr. Jowett, senior, was not less remarkable for the soundness of his understanding, than for his steady and ardent attachment to the cause of religion. Many of his letters are in the possession of Mr. Hey's family; they breathe the spirit of genuine piety, and might perhaps be exhibited as excellent specimens of epistolary correspondence." Mr. John Jowett, of Newington Butts, in the County of Surrey, resided many years at Leeds, during the earlier part of his life. He had become deeply impressed with a sense of the importance of becoming seriously religious, by attending the Church at Huddersfield, of which the pious and eloquent Henry Venn was, at that time, the Vicar. He was likewise in the habit of making frequent visits thither, that he might derive instruction and assistance from the private conversation and exhortations of that eminent Minister of the Gospel. The genuine piety of Mr. John Jowett, and the general construction of his mind, qualified him, in a peculiar manner, to become the intimate friend of Mr. Hey, at a period when this gentleman's associates were limited within a small circle. Although Mr. John Jowett had not been educated for any of the learned professions, yet he was well informed in many departments of knowledge, and had directed his studies more especially to moral and theological subjects. He possessed a sound and penetrating understanding; his elocution was fluent, perspicuous, an...
