The Son of the Streets Terrence LeRoy Baker

Tea is a young ambitious boy that started his life off with limited options. First he grows up to realize that his father will never be a part of his life, and then he finds out that his father didn't even believe that he was his son. That was hard for Tea, but what was even harder than that was when he lost his mother and the only hope that he had left of ever understanding what the word love really meant. Left to be raised by the hard Indiana streets and destined to fail; Tea learned the tricks and the trades of sex, money, murder, and how to survive off of nothing but the very streets that he sleeps on from time to time. Life is short on the streets; Tea's only escape from this nightmare is when he dreams of death. Will Tea come out of the trenches of the hard knock life, or will Tea just become another statistic?
