How would you like to make money doing what you love most? No matter where your interest lies--whether you collect stamps, love pets, or enjoy painting--you can turn your favorite avocation into a money-making enterprise. This book shows you how, step-by-step. Written by Martha Campbell Pullen, a college professor who turned her passion for sewing into a $2.5-million-a-year company, this book offers invaluable practical instructions for turning your part-time hobby into an exciting, thriving business. It teaches you the planning process, promotional tips, and people skills you need to succeed as an entrepreneur. Embellished with her down-home appeal and warm southern grace, Dr. Pullen's multi-million-dollar ideas and strategies will spark your creativity and enthusiasm and give you the encouragement to start turning your pastime into profit.
