The Boy Scouts on Belgian Battlefields (WWI Centenary Series) Howard Payson

The Boy Scouts on Belgian Battlefields' is part of a youth fiction series by Howard Payson, a pseudonym of John Henry Goldfrap. It tells the story of the brave boy scouts outwitting the enemy during the First World War. Originally published in 1915, this is not only an entertaining read, but also gives a valuable insight into how the Great War was depicted in contemporary literature. This book is part of the World War One Centenary series; creating, collating and reprinting new and old works of poetry, fiction, autobiography and analysis. The series forms a commemorative tribute to mark the passing of one of the world's bloodiest wars, offering new perspectives on this tragic yet fascinating period of human history. Each publication also includes brand new introductory essays and a timeline to help the reader place the work in its historical context.
