The Generation of 1898 and After (Spanish and English Edition)

Here is a one-volume collection of Spanish literature designed for second - or third - year classes in college Spanish or for courses in modern Spanish literature. The outstanding writers of modern Spain are represented by their most characteristic works in a rich variety of genres including poetry, essays, epigrams, novels, and a play. The editors make every effort to clarify the historical backgrounds in a concise general introduction as well as in short essays dealing with each author. Generous footnoting and a comprehensive vocabulary are provided.
