Sinaiyah is young, ambitious and beautiful. She knows that she can make men weak and she enjoys seeing them crave her. With just the touch of her hands, she can make them feel like they're the only man that matters to her. Known as the foreplay goddess, she can make any fantasy come true. However, achieving her own happiness is hard work. Backstabbing the one she loves ends up hurting her more, and creating a ripple effect of heartache. Sinaiyah blames everyone but herself for her own destruction. To Courtland Biggs, none of this is an issue, because to him she's worth all of the pain she causes, and he refuses to give up on her. When things start looking brighter for Sinaiyah, she becomes hopeful for a new life. Newfound relationships blossom, toxic friendships are removed, an amazing new job opportunity awaits, but most importantly she has a man who loves her unconditionally. In Addicted to Sin, Sinaiyah and Courtland find themselves mixing business with pleasure and finding out that there are consequences to every decision they make. Everything seems perfect; however, nothing is what it appears to be, especially in this world of Sin.
