Depressed and feeling alone, Love is not herself. One bad decision is led to another as she tries to pull everything together. Joshua is trying his best to be there for Love but she keeps pushing him away. He finds comfort in his son and enjoys his company. Love still has ill feelings about Joshua junior and she doesn't hide it. Complaining about him every chance she gets she doesn't care about who feelings she hurts. Egypt, trying to be the peace maker, gets put in the middle of as she attempts to bring everyone together. Being the stubborn, spoiled child that Bryson has turned her into, she starts messing with the enemy, Scorpio! Bryson is tired of Love and her selfish ways. When he finds out about her and Scorpio he flips out and threatens to disown her from his family. Scorpio has his own hiding agenda. When he and Shanique start working together nothing but hell breaks out between Joshua, Love, Bryson, and Egypt. Shanique is still after Joshua but holds a secret of her own. As Desmond makes his appearance to get revenge on not only Joshua but someone else, drama unfolds for everyone. Will Love finally come to her senses or will she push Joshua away until he can't take it anymore and leave her for good? With Shanique prowling in the background and Scorpio lurking on the side, then Desmond bringing up the rear. Is there any self place for anyone?
