Allegory often permits to drive the right conclusions home, even when the same wisdom expressed in conventional terms proves ineffective. This is why the art of fable survived millennia helping the mankind to express important ideas, to facilitate the understanding of human behavior, to educate the young generation. This book is made up of fables based on traditional contents, presented in poetical form with appropriate rhymes and meter. The book spans the range of diverse experiences, interests, ages, generations, educations, and aspirations. Royal Lion and brave Gnat, sly Fox and vain Crow, angry Wolf or Snake and innocent Lamb all help to sort out Virtue from Evil, Good from Bad, Smarts from Simplicity. Both young and old will find in this book ample material to enjoy and to think about, to learn and discuss, to remember and to apply to their life. Extra-high quality paper, skillful layout, and original color illustrations amplify the book's message, and on the other hand, make it an excellent present.
