Individual initiative and team cohesion are crucial to challenges associated with growth – maintain quality and stay focused on the mission so that your rewards and impact expand. This book is for the executive who has thrown money down the drain in personnel profiles and workforce education. These efforts achieved initial results in improved quality and productivity, but a positive trend line was not maintained. Why? The educational effect decayed because we are creatures of habit. Then the executive threw away more money to save the remaining ROI – the resources were wasted because human dynamics trump personality profiling or social engineering. Victor Bloomberg reveals the human dimension of teamwork in common sense language. The wisdom is derived from 30 years experience in Corporate Social Responsibility projects.
