Loving and Hating a Duke Natalie K. Lynn

Christiana vowed to hate every duke on earth because she had been promised as a child to one. But when her brother John is taken prisoner by the French, fate plays its turn by putting another duke in her life. Much against her will, her brother's friend William Godfire becomes her greatest ally. So Christiana and William go to France to find John. In the end, there is another battle in store: the one her heart is challenging her to fight. Will Christiana be able to marry the duke she is betrothed to after all she has lived with William? A fictional short story that takes place in the Middle Ages
