The Palliative and End-of-Life Care Handbook: Optimising delivery of care for people living in care homes Gary Mitchell, Jessica McGreevy, Joanne Agnelli, Monica Diamond

This book provides nurses, care workers and nursing assistants working in nursing and residential care homes with a comprehensive and practical overview of palliative and end of life care. It will offer an introduction to the concept of palliative care, how it can be differentiated from end-of-life and how it can be commenced in a timely manner so that the person who is living in a care home can contribute to the planning of their own death. The book will be framed entirely within a care home context and will be illustrated throughout by clinical examples and more detailed case studies.
