With the Carriers In Korea John Landsdown

Carriers in Korea provides a definitive record of the Korean conflict including a full and detailed history of sea and air operations in South East Asia from 1950-1953. All Royal Navy and United States Navy ships are mentioned including all the carriers which saw action. This vital work of reference is enlivened by a stunning photographic content and extracts from the Squadron Diaries and Line Books, covering every day that aircraft flew into battle. A unique and absorbing book.
