A Fan's-Eye View of the Baseball Hall of Fame: A Critique of Baseball's Greatest Institution Matt Sullivan, Dave Manion

A Fan's-Eye View of the Baseball Hall of Fame is an often iconoclastic, sometimes controversial, yet always entertaining look at the institution that welcomes and enshrines the game's greatest players. Using statistics that can be understood by even the most casual fan, A Fan's-Eye discusses the qualifications of every modern-era inductee, future candidates, and many near-misses, thereby serving as a gateway to the stars of the past and present. Budding and long term fans alike will find an enjoyable reading experience, full of anecdotes, trivia, and history about the world's greatest game. But, A Fan's-Eye also calls for reforming the system used in choosing the inductees. The statistical analysis and exhaustive research will test the baseball savvy of even the most knowledgeable patron of the game, but those who dispute the findings will need to bring their A-game to convincingly argue otherwise.
