Birth Aleksander Jakopic

Have you ever wondered where do we come from? After reading this Book You'll might re-call your memories, because this writing evokes the memory of smudged but not an insignificant event, called Birth. At the same time serves as the instructional text to newborn babies before and after birth, in order to get their voice harmonized with external feelings. It is a highlight to other, how fragile perfect embryo is, and shows the difference between the worlds in which we live ... Aleksander J. This little book contains the memories of the author of his journey from an embryo through emergence from the womb. These pages are lyrical and do ring true at a much deeper level than mere words can convey. As you read, your own journey may be stimulated. At the very least, you will be swept away by the imagery depicting a land we have all visited and from which we retain only spotty recall. Jeane Rhodes - APPPAH
