A Celebration of Modern Nigerian Art - 101 Nigerian Artists Chukwuemeka Bosah, George Edozie

This book features both established and upcoming artists of Nigerian ancestry practicing in Nigeria and in the Diaspora. This compendium of works by 101 artists presently active showcases the depth and diversity of the featured visual artists. In this book, there is something for the the scholar who wants to get a primer on modern Nigerian art and its roots, the museum curator scouting for the next talent to invite for an exhibition in their gallery or museum, the collector who is interested in contemporary art and looking to acquire new work, and the general public who needs to experience Nigerian art. Although mostly filled by images, there are scholarly essays written by distinguished art historians, including but not limited to E. Okechukwu Odita, Frank Ugiomoh, et cetera.
