The Kid's Guide to Grand Teton National Park Charles Craighead

The perfect companion for a child visiting Grand Teton National Park! The story of this park is told clearly and colorfully - from the rise of the Tetons, to American Indians, to the establishment of the park. It is also a field guide, with pictures and information about common animals and plants, geology, and historic landmarks. The photographs by Henry H. Holdsworth and text by Charles Craighead create a wonderful resource for children to learn about the richness of their national park.
