Antoinette's life felt like it was finally on track. She was doing great in school and she had the best man that a girl could ask for. All of that suddenly changed though once Aaron was fatally shot and left fighting for his life. She stuck by his side as much as she could but each passing day she was feeling overwhelmed as everything began to unfold in front of her eyes piece by piece. Antoinette's family isn't making things better because they are forcing her to choose between them or the love of her life and to make matters worse she is hit with a bombshell that will forever change her life. Anastasia tries to help Antoinette as much as possible but she has just as many secrets of her own that she can't tell if she's coming or going. Does Antoinette and Anastasia have what it takes to maintain the picture perfect life or will life itself become too much that they crack under pressure? Find out in the sequel of "Ain't Nothing Like A Chi-Town Thug 2" ,where bonds will be broken and lives will be changed.
