She Dreams (Volume 1) Anissa T Waterman

Tara lives in the future where everyone and everything is the same. Feelings are considered useless. Dreams are illegal. Tara is a dreamer. Not even the pills she is forced to take stops her dreams. Tara finds an ancient book and is swept up into a story written just for her. She is taken into the past. The year 1567. This is where she meets her first love, experiences her first loss and figures out that feelings are important and not useless. That dreams are important. She returns to the future to discover King Alroy has made her his mothers lady in waiting. She moves into the castle and learns that she has a destiny so big it may destroy her.
