Open Wheel (Racing on the Edge) (Volume 9) Shey Stahl

How do you choose? How do you keep from hurting the ones you love when you know your heart belongs with both of them? Seven years ago Arie Riley married Easton Levi, current heart-throb of the NASCAR Cup series. She made a commitment to him. She gave her heart and soul to another. Her love is heavy. Consuming. And it's inherently tied to two people. Arie thought she had made her mind up. She chose that Darlington-determined boy that wouldn't let her forget he was more than just a Midwestern-wheeler searching for the spotlight. When Arie is offered a job with the World Racing Group, she thinks this is her chance for independence. Only she's not prepared for that dusty feeling clinging to her skin when her life starts spinning out of control. So why is she suddenly finding comfort in the country-boy crush, Rager Sweet, who stole her heart ten years ago? In the public eye, the glory is high, and defeat, it's low. When Arie least expects it, she's left with her wild-hearted ways and the decisions she's made.
