QuickStart to Social Dancing: An Easy-To-Follow Guide for Beginners (QuickStart Dance) Jeff Allen
Beginners, Wedding Dancers, and those with single milestone dates can learn on their own effectively enough to just get by, saving hundreds of dollars in lessons for any simple social occasion or first dance presentation. This book is written as if Jeff is right there with the student giving a private lesson. With over 15 years of teaching experience he has anticipated what the student must encounter in their learning experience and is right there with a useful solution.

1. First in the Quickstart to Dance Series with Jeff Allen's breakthrough technique that is changing the methods that social dancing is being taught.
2. Lays down the foundation in the six major dances including: Foxtrot, Waltz, Rumba, Merengue, Swing, and Cha-cha to use on your own or to compliment your dance lessons
3. A virtual Bible for the bride and groom's first dance at their wedding. The only text in print that teaches how to prepare for and conduct the 1st Wedding Dance!
4. Perfect for the beginner and occasional dancer at weddings, resort vacations, parties, and cruises.
5. Using language for the laymen or non-dancer, the easy-to-understand physical references and directions make this title a must for the beginner reader/user.
