God's given you a vision for your life and your business. What now? Our culture can pressure women to assume many different identities; mother, daughter, wife, CEO, less-than and so on. With this identity crisis it's easy to become discouraged and lose sight of your God given vision. I believe God has instilled an entrepreneurial heart in every female. I mean...you're born to birth humans after all! If you're born to do that, you can certainly birth a business plan! In order to understand what God has in store for you, you must first understand what God can do THROUGH you!
