Why We Feel Road Rage And Why It's Your Fault! David Allan

1. Are you a good person whose patience is often tested when you get behind the wheel?
2. When you become frustrated by bad drivers, do your passengers ever act as if somehow you're to blame?
3. Do you find yourself defending your emotions while the true culprits behind them are completely ignored?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then this book will take you on a joyride!

Finally someone shows compassion for the millions of us who feel "road rage" without letting it affect our behavior. Using his own unique blend of humor, empathy, and satire, David Allan exposes the guilty parties who aggravate others. You'll learn why he applies pass/fail grading to the driving public, differentiating those who feel frustration (Class A) from those who cause it (Class F). He even provides us with a myriad of useful driving tips. As one reader put it, "This book is the perfect roadmap for dealing with "F"s!"
