How to Dispose of a Dead Chicken David Castle

As the front cover so aptly illustrates, the principle actor in this book is of course the chicken, sadly deceased yet holding centre stage throughout. Ever since I got my first taste of Coq au Vin whilst staying in Quebec, Canada, further back than I care to remember, I have been hooked on the many various ways of presenting chicken at the meal table. This has led to a large collection of recipes gleaned over the years and from many countries far and wide, and a collection, a large part of which, I feel that I should at least share with others so here are 96 for you to have fun with.
