Innocent Victims: The Question of Child Abuse Alan Gilmour

A practical guide for parents, teachers and all who come into contact with children on a daily basis. Dr Gilmour looks at different forms of child abuse - physical, sexual and emotional - together with the context in which they can develop. He also examines who is responsible for child abuse and what is being done to prevent it. The work of the professionals, the law and its powers of protection are covered and suggestions put forward for the ways in which we, as members of a caring society, can save and protect the victim.
