Abby And William And The Little Man: A Christian Western Romance Novella Victoria Otto

Abby And William And The Little Man, is about young Abby who just loves horses. She's out riding one day when she hears a thud and then a groan and then a mustang runs right past her and her mare. She finds out that the thud was the son of a neighboring rancher who she hasn't seen for years. When she looks into his gray eyes, she's hooked. At a barn dance, another young woman tells her some gossip, which casts doubts on William, and Abby cannot get the gossip to leave her every thought. William then disappears for weeks and Abby finds herself losing any hope of making the romance between them blossom, or even if William feels the same way about her. When he returns, they go for a ride and he tells her everything.
