A black market baby producing camp in rural New England is broken up through the persistence of obstetrician Alex Faber, who left her residency program in New York City for the tranquil setting of a private practice in Breedville, New Hampshire. Together with her partner Joshua Barron, she faces life and death scenarios at Garrison Breed General Hospital where as the seasons change, so does the drama. Personal issues become public and complex situations ranging from infertility and cancer to domestic violence and incest unfold, often in front of the entire community. In the field of obstetrics and gynecology, the complexities of life are deeply felt. This couldn't be truer than for Alex and Joshua as they continue through their second year of private practice together.
